COSCIAN

THE 1964 CORSICAN
CORSICANA HIGH SCHOOL
CORSICANA, TEXAS

LYNNE ETZEL
EDITOR

SHARON SKEWS
BUSINESS MANAGER

These are the people of Corsicana High School — the teachers, the students, the administrators. This is their story — a record of their activities, their achievements, their honors, their moments of triumph and of defeat. We hope that in days to come the 1964 CORSICAN will be referred to as a true account of the cherished memories which are a part of all people.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1964

PRESENTS

THE CURIOUS SAVAGE

BY JOHN PATRICK

Director . . . Mr. Jim Campbell

"I'm sorry, Mother. Hold your bear. I forgot that you're sick."

TECHNICAL CREW

Stage Manager	Hugh Stroube
Lighting	Lynn Sanders
Sound	Loyd Huffman
Publicity	Jo Ann Harris
Business Manager	Nancy Harrison
Make-up	Jackie Heifner

The guests of "The Cloister," the members of the Savage family, and the staff brought THE CURIOUS SAVAGE to life. Seated, left to right, are: Hannibal, Ronny Thompson; Mrs. Savage, Becky Simmons; Lily Belle, Linda Ward; and Miss Wilhelmina, Judi Breithaupt. Row Two: Mrs. Paddy, Teri Travis; Fairy May, Melanie Love; and Dr. Emmett, James Kirkpatrick. Row Three: Florence, Helen Penland; Samuel Savage, Lothar Harris; Titus Savage, Thomas Reese; and Jeffrey Meredith, Jackie Heifner.

"I hate everything in the world, but most of all I hate revolving doors, cuspidors, fights, fuzz, fleas, bumblebees, prickly heat, bats, gnats, pills, pots, pans, butts, bladders, worms, germs, pachyderms, and politicians!"

ry remains on the floor after playing to the imaginary rhythm Hannibal's violin. Mrs. Savage is of her experiences on stage while Mrs. Paddy works silently and gently on her seascape.

OFFICE ASSISTANTS

The duty of the office assistants is to aid the secretary in the efficient handling of office procedure. The girls forfeit a study hall in order to take and receive messages and check attendance. They are responsible for a large part of the smooth-running procedure.

During halftime activity at the Athens game, Mary McKie was selected as 1963 Football Sweetheart. Her escort is senior guard Lonnie Elmore.

COACHES

The 1963 edition of the Tigers is indeed fortunate to have such an exceptional coaching staff as the group that led the team through its tremendous season.

Head Coach Jim Acree, along with Assistant Coaches Raymond Anderson, Jerry Moore, Jerry Matthews, and Paul Slaughter, worked hard and long with the team, attempting to instill in the boys all the knowledge of football so that they could achieve success, which they did in Victoria last December 21.

Mr. Acree directed the interior linemen and backs, Mr. Anderson handled the defensive backs, Mr. Moore worked with the ends, while Coaches Matthews and Slaughter handled the B Team.

These men are to be commended for their outstanding job of giving Corsicana its first state championship in 31 years.

PERFECT RECORD CAPTURES STATE TITLE

With an accomplished brand of teamwork, all out hustle, and fierce determination, the Tigers clawed through 14 opponents to the Class AAA State Championship.

After racing to their fourth straight district title, the Bengals showed their best strength of the season as they whipped Palestine, McKinney, Graham, and Pharr-San Juan-Alamo to reach the pinnacle of AAA football.

Their 14-0-0 record left them the only undefeated, untied high school team in Texas, quite a tribute to the boys and coaches.

Congratulations to the State Champs of '63!

The Tiger B Team again came up with an exceptional season, winning six games and losing but two. Only a narrow 7-6 loss to a strong Cleburne team prevented them from having an unblemished district record.

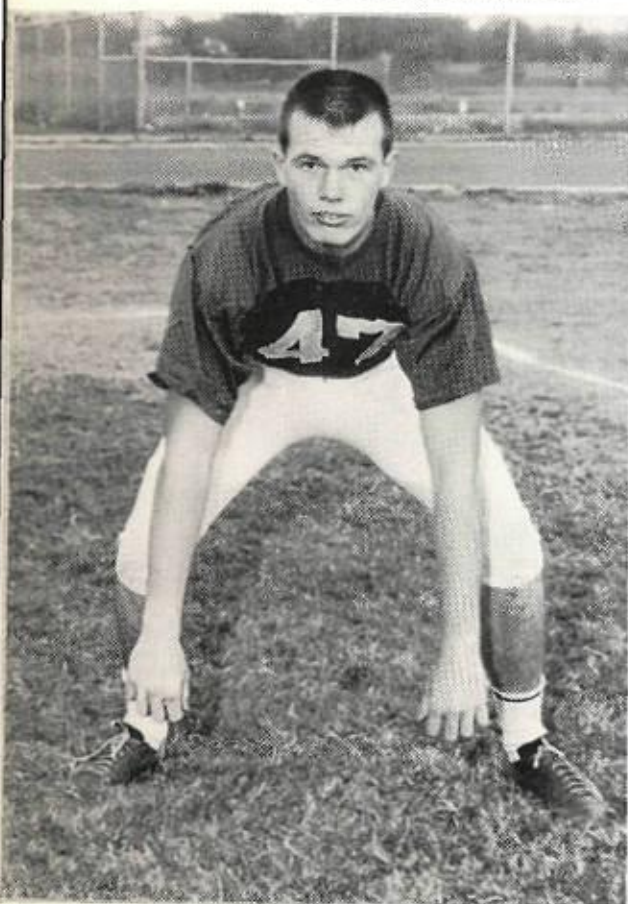

With Coaches Jerry Matthews and Paul Slaughter leading them, the Cubs displayed a capable, well-conditioned team whose high spirits carried them to those six victories.

JERRY ANDERSON

A junior, Jerry manned the tackle position this season and was able to strengthen the line through his size and maneuverability. Jerry showed his interest in the game by hustling at all times and helping to bolster high spirits.

BILL ALLISON

Only a sophomore, Bill saw action both offensively and defensively and showed up well against the opposing team. His bull-like runs gained many teams' respect. He also made several outstanding plays as a middle guard.

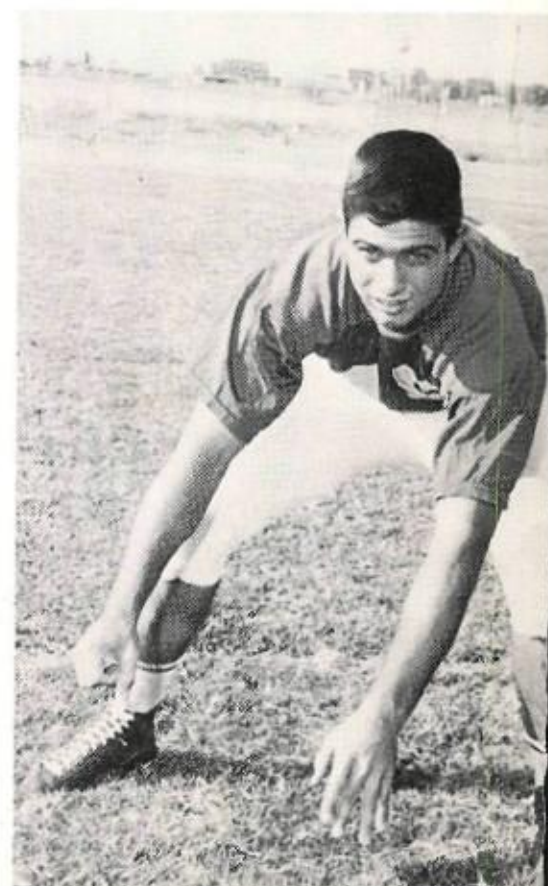

BRUCE BUTLER

SAM COOPER

After being slowed by a shoulder injury his junior year, Sam returned to action to anchor the Tiger forward wall in fine fashion. A consistent, hard-hitting tackle, Sam made the all-district team and received honorable mention for all-state.

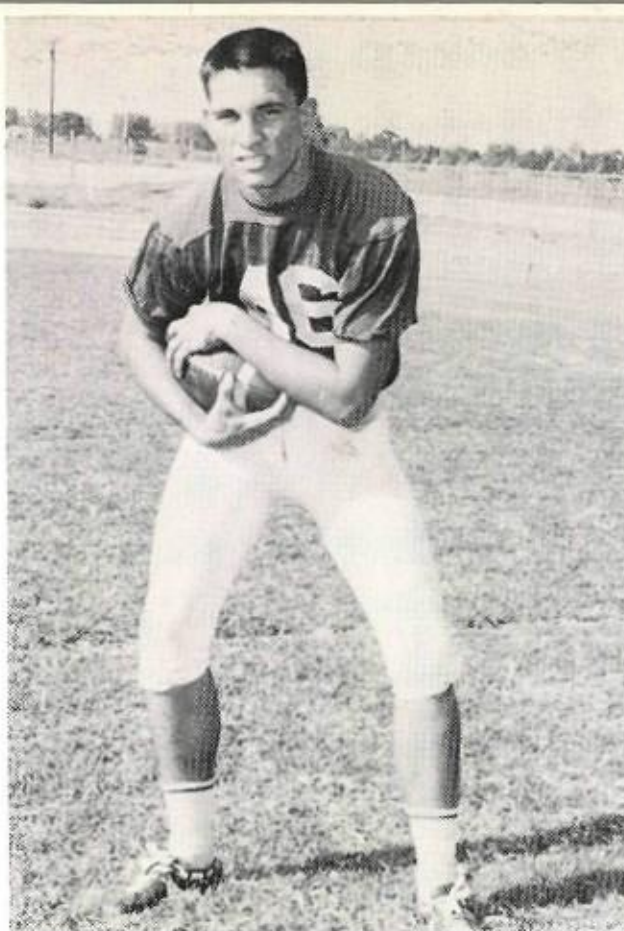

RONALD COTTAR

In his first year on the A Squad, Ron drove and hit hard proving himself asset to the team. This capable jun stood out many a time on the defense line of the Bengals.

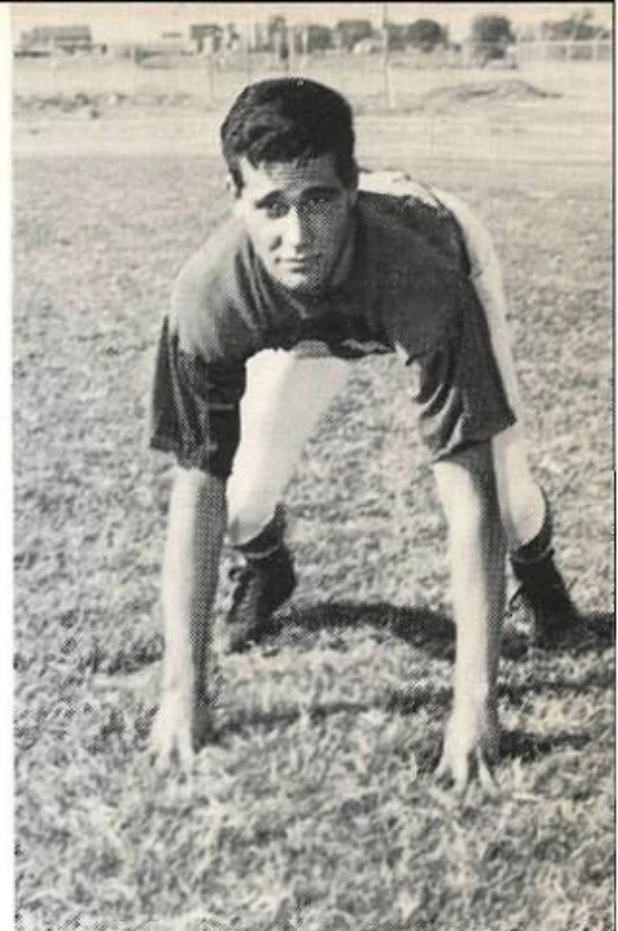

MARK DAWSON

Another from the list of running backs, Mark's brightest moment came when he scored a touchdown against Ennis to lend hand in the victory. A senior, Mark had the speed to make him an addition to the Tiger backfield.

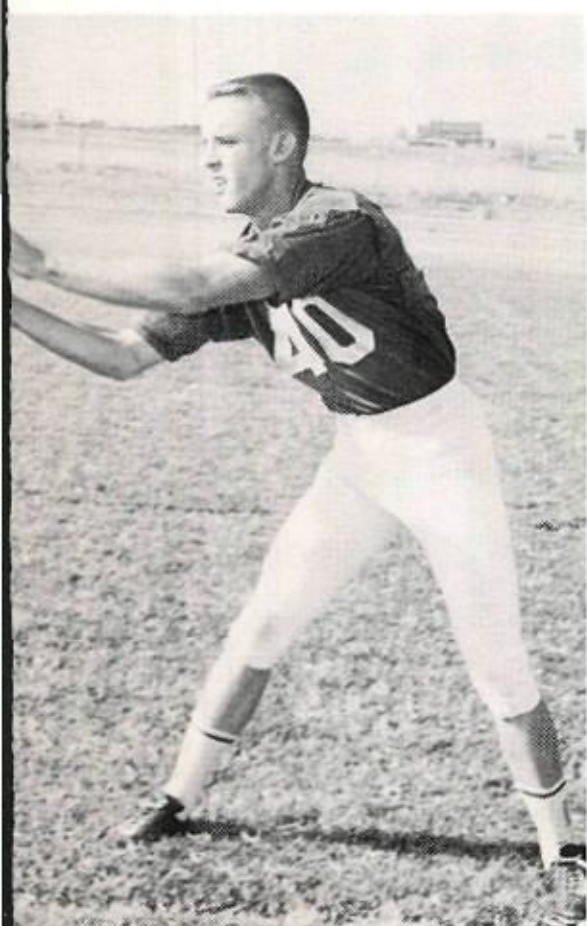

DONNIE DENBOW

Donnie, after a year's absence, came back with a successful season as right end. The big senior, who led the Tiger receivers with 39 catches, was named to the all-state team in Class AAA due to his consistent, heads-up play.

LONNIE ELMORE

In his first year out for football this year, Lonnie tried and played hard and caught on in a hurry to provide the Tiger line with another fighting guard. A senior, Lonnie worked strenuously to aid the Bengals.

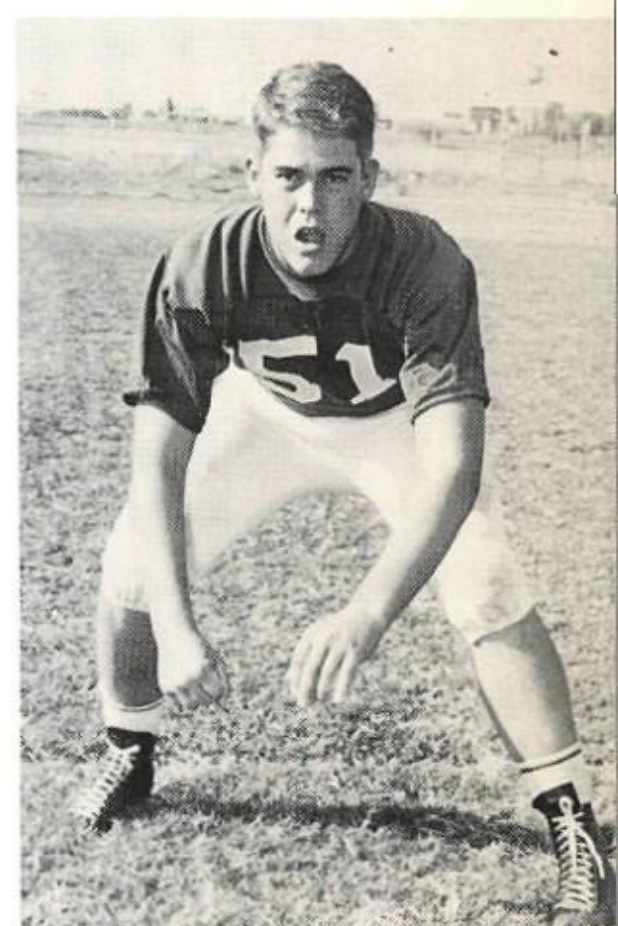

ROGER GOLDESBERRY

Another from the junior group, Roger displayed ability on both offense and defense. His hustle and high spirits showed that he enjoyed playing, and could be counted on to fill in at his position.

ROBERT GRAHAM

Robert, a big 205 pound senior tackle, threw some fine blocks from his position to help runners get their start. A constant thorn in the enemy's side, Robert's desire and will to win earned him an all-district title.

FOOTBALL LETTERMEN

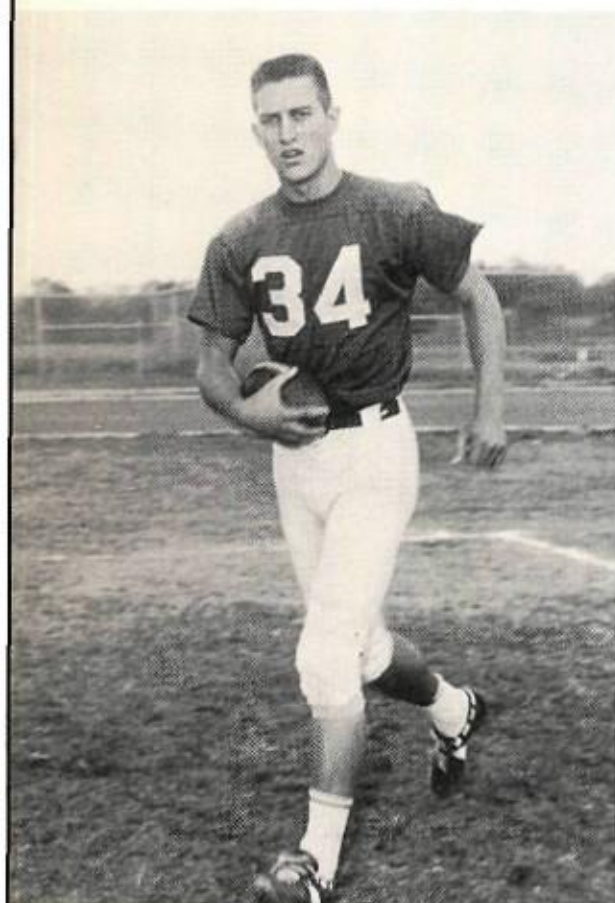

Tiger quarterback Gary Roman (25) cuts through the Palestine defense for first down yardage as the Bengals whipped the Wildcats, 27-7.

FOOTBALL LETTERMEN

All-State fullback Jim Hagle (34) sprints goalward as he scores the championship game's only touchdown on a pass from Rankin Koch after a fake field goal attempt.

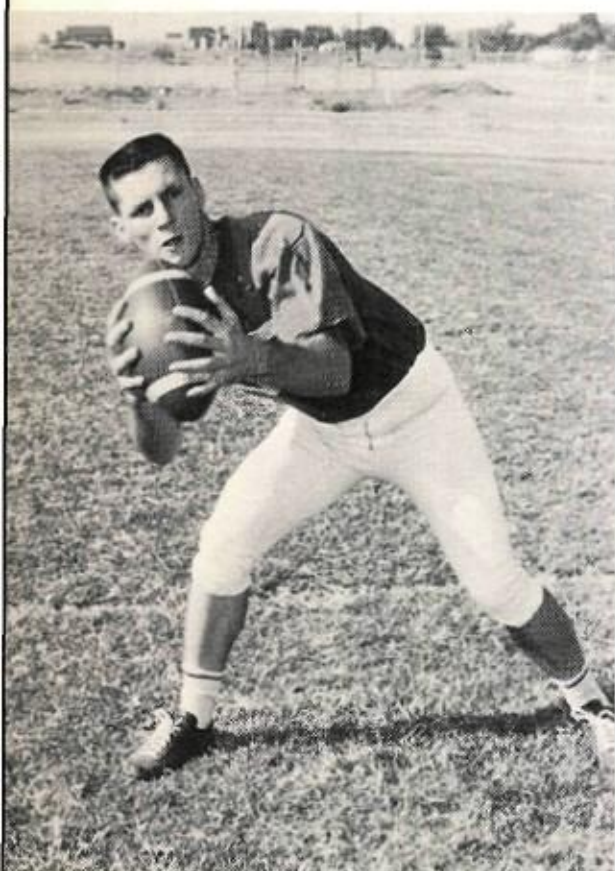

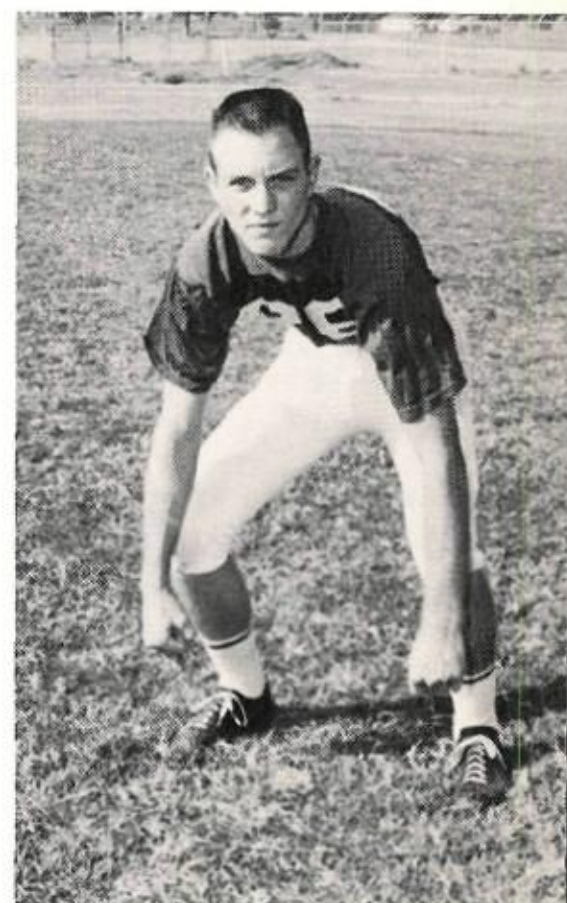

JIM HAGLE

Jim capped his high school career by leading the team in scoring, rushing, and punting, plus making his second all-district team and gaining an all-state berth. This tough 190 pounder battered enemy lines for 1138 yards and 23 touchdowns, proving his worth to the team. The bruising senior was tough in the clutch and ran for many a vital yard.

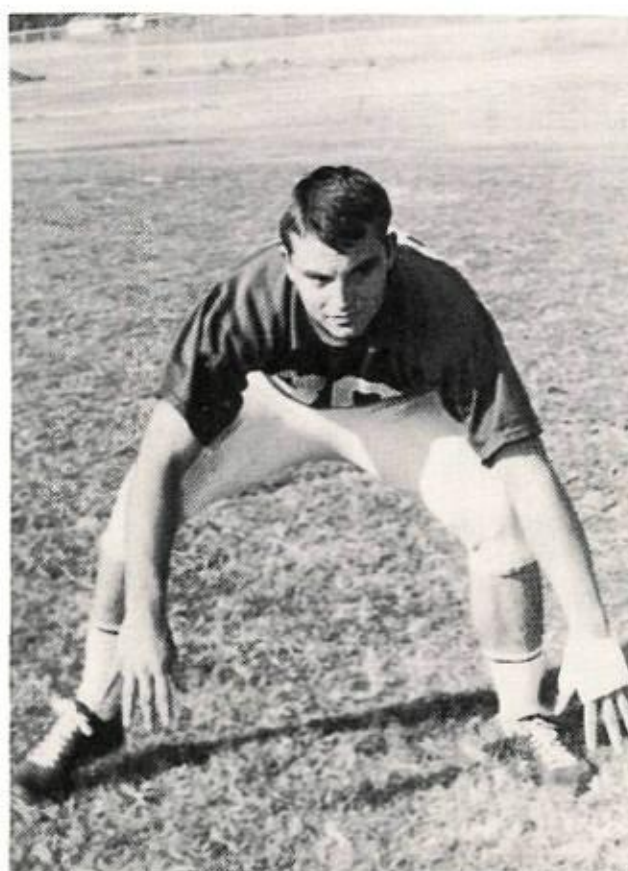

BILL HENSON

A converted halfback, Bill, with his aggressive play, made a top-notch defensive end. One of the team's junior players, Bill was always ready for each game and gave an all-out effort every play.

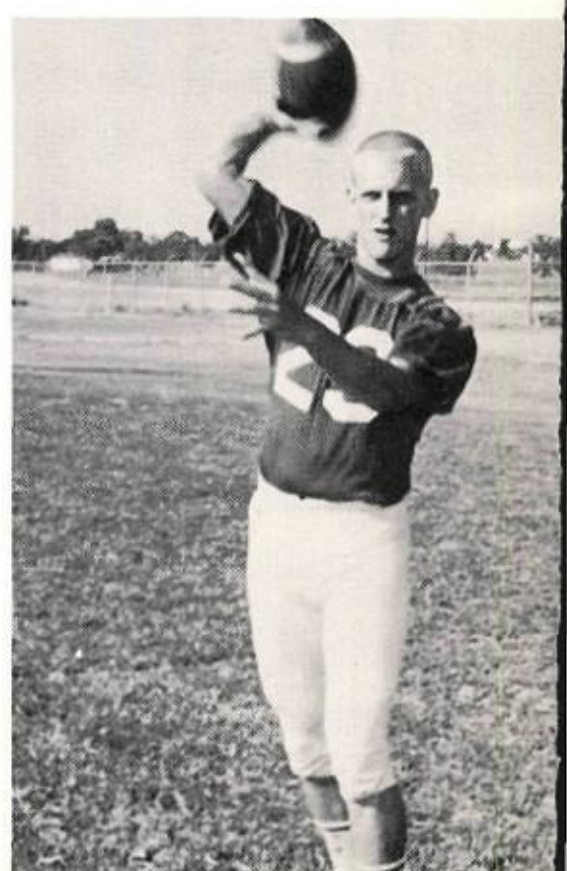

HOLLY HOLSTIEN

Holly, after skipping his junior year on the gridiron, came back this season to work from the tailback position. Quick and elusive, this senior player sprang through the line on several runs to gobble up the needed yardage.

DON IVIE

A junior tackle, Don won a starting berth at the beginning of the season and held it throughout. Although several times confronted by heavier opposition, Don's hustling effectively carried out his assignment.

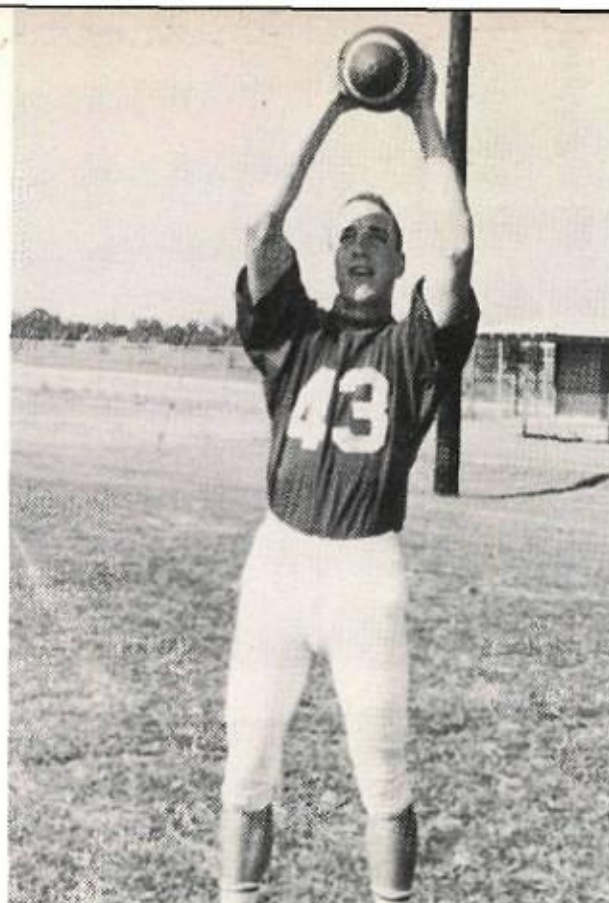

RANKIN KOCH

Seeing most of his action on defense, Rankin stopped many wide sweeps and passes with hard tackling and quick pursuit. A junior, he was a double-duty man as an offensive quarterback and defensive cornerback.

RICKEY LIBAL

Rick's talented toe accounted for a number of extra points this season as he compiled a record of 38 kicks out of 44 attempts, plus 3 of 5 field goals to make his junior player the third leading Tiger scorer.

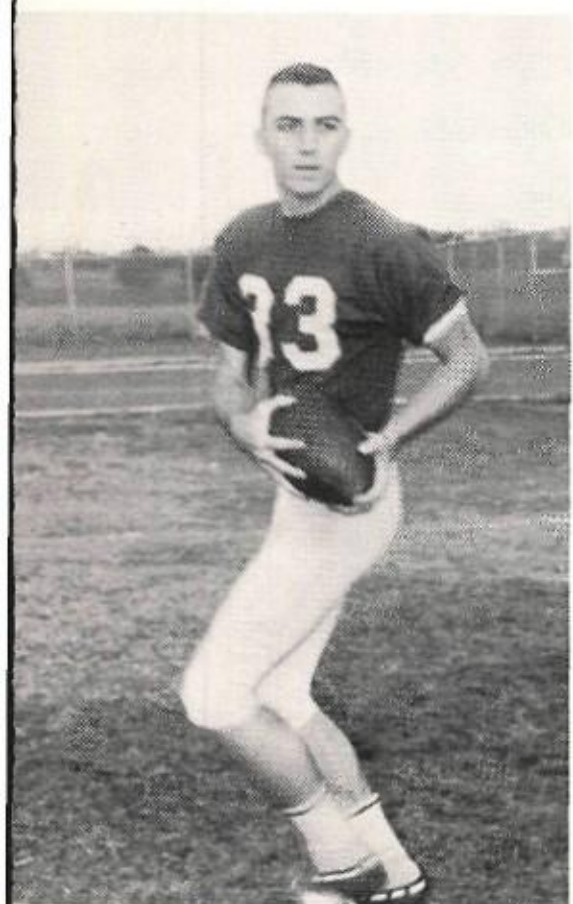

MARC MAXWELL

Perhaps one of the most under-rated players, Marc showed his stuff this fall as he turned back many running threats from his defensive end post. A senior, two-year letterman, Marc displayed hard-fighting spirit.

JOHNNY NELSON

Johnny closed out a successful high school career this season by lettering for the third straight year and by being named all-district end for the second time. Johnny, a senior, played a vital part in the drive to the state championship.

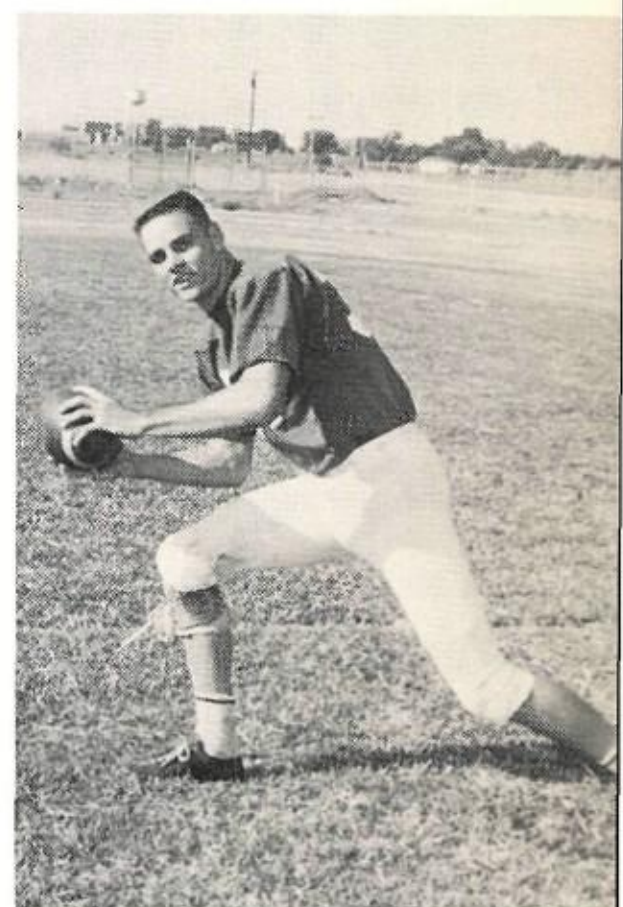

RONNIE RHOADS

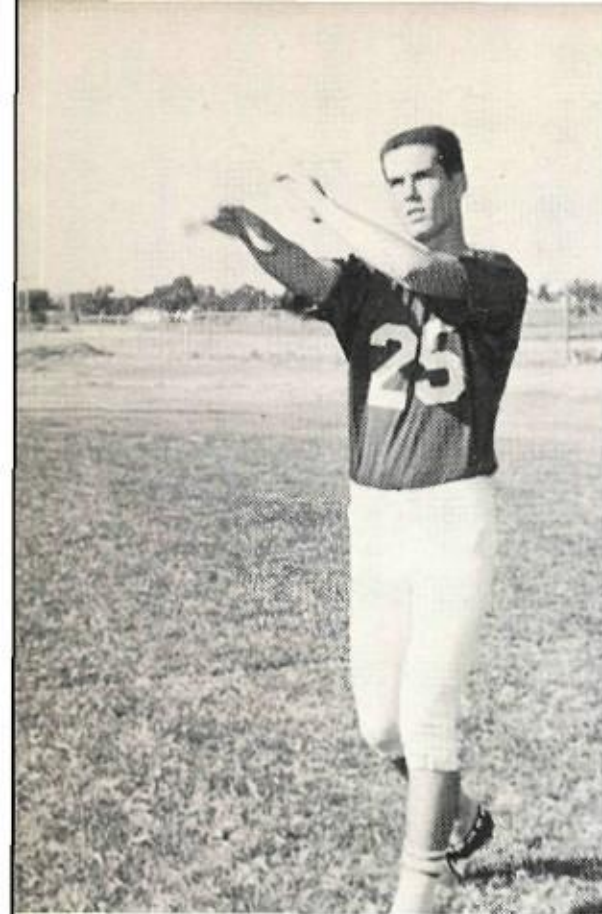

A junior back, Ronnie proved to be a clutch runner for the Bengals as he made crucial yardage on several occasions. His speed and versatility enabled him to earn all-district honors.

DAVID ROBINSON

Hampered by leg injuries throughout most of his high school career, Dave whipped the injury bug this fall and gave the fans plenty to yell about with his quick, darting scampers through the opposition. This senior's speed helped the Tigers out of many tight spots. He was named to all-district.

Scoring the two most important points of his career, quarterback Gary Roman (25) crosses the double stripe to insure the semi-final victory, 14-13, over Graham.

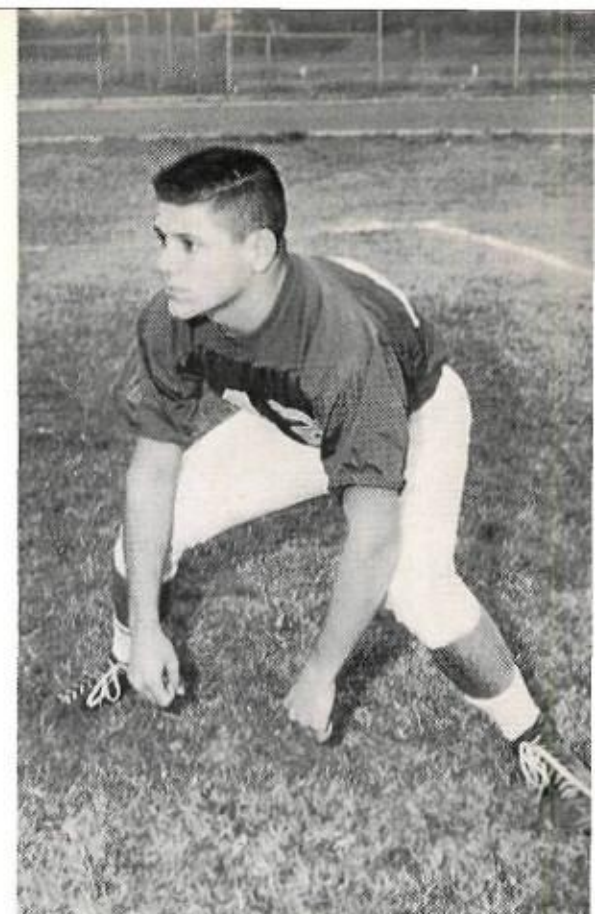

GARY ROMAN

This all-district senior co-captain made a tremendous asset to this year's team by directing the Tigers to many touchdowns. His driving run for the last two points in the Graham game highlighted a great season that included a passing record of 83 completions out of 129 attempts and honorable mention in all-state.

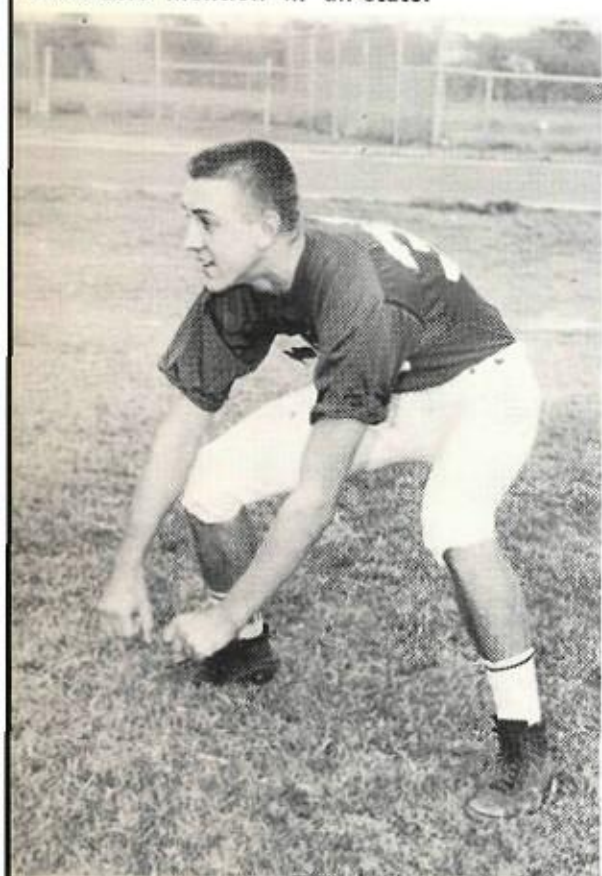

STAN ROSEN

Stan, a junior, saw a lot of playing time as both center and linebacker and proved himself worthy by making some exciting plays from either position. He helped to stifle enemy threats.

NICKY SANDERS

Reliable and dependable, Nicky came up from the B Team to make a fine addition to the Bengal forward wall. Nicky, a junior player, worked hard and played aggressively to make a good guard this year.

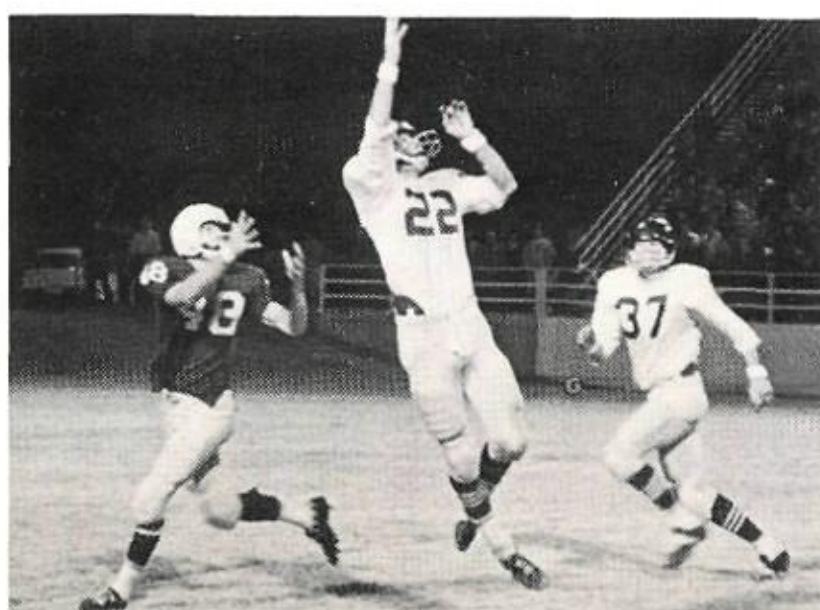

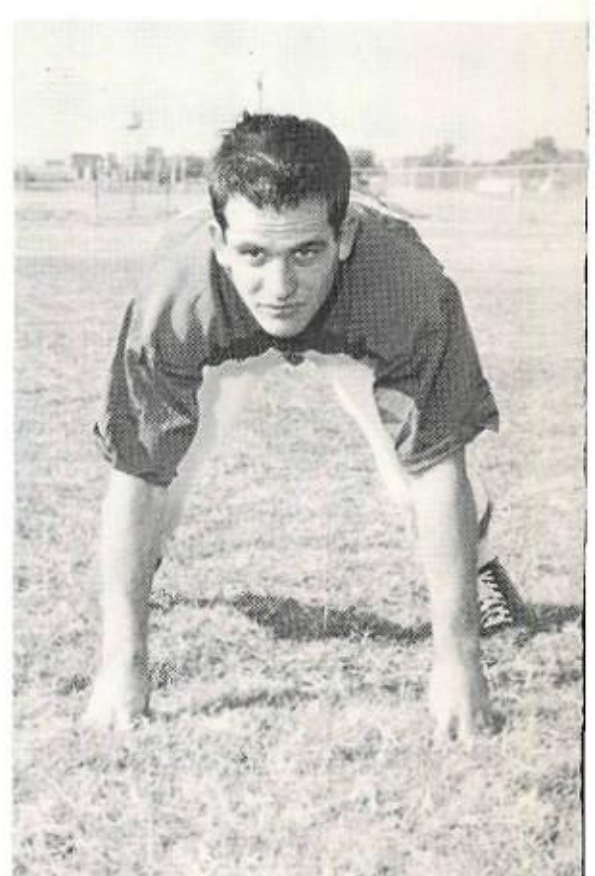

JERRY SHEETS

Playing either tackle or guard, Jerry was always ready to fill in with consistent, hard-nosed play. His fighting spirit aided the Tiger line.

CODY SHERRARD

A junior, Cody finished a successful first year with the Tigers by being named all-district on defense as a result of his aggressive play throughout the season. His instinct and fighting spirit helped this 145 pounder to come up with some great line play that repelled enemy backs.

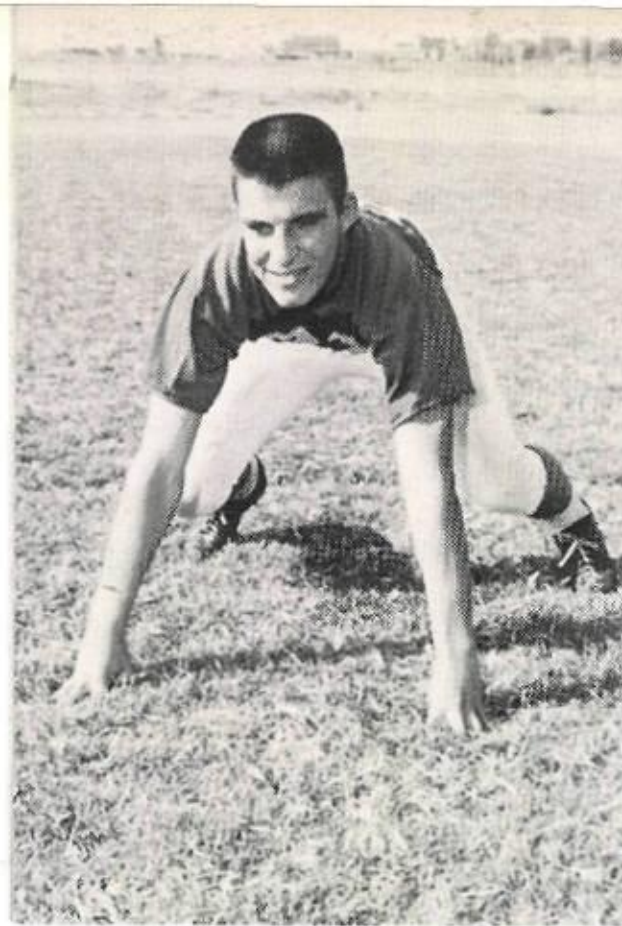

Chick Whistler (22), Tiger defensive halfback, reaches up to deflect a McKinney pass in the tense quarterfinal match.

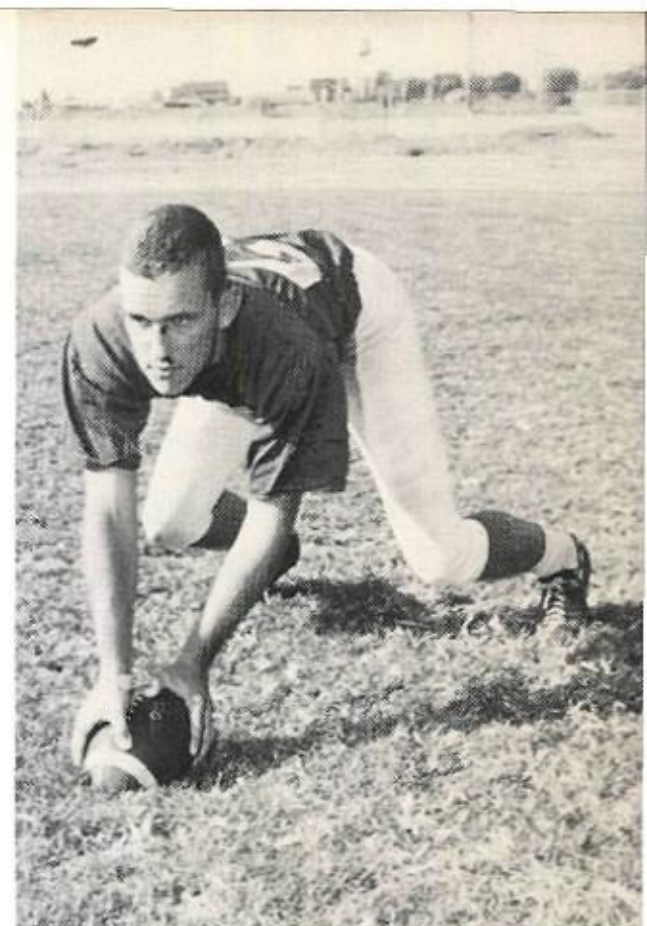

BEN SMITH

Another of the sophomores who made A Squad, Ben provided the fullback post in a reliable replacement. Although small in frame for a fullback, Ben made up for size with some capable running.

JOE SMITH

Switching from halfback to a guard this season, Joe caught on in a hurry and held down his position as the Tigers swept through their successful season. This senior's quick reactions helped him considerably in his line play.

JOHN STOVER

A senior player, John came through with a great job at the center slot this season. Although outweighed by virtually every opponent, John's sharpness and knack for the game helped him to achieve success.

FOOTBALL LETTERMEN

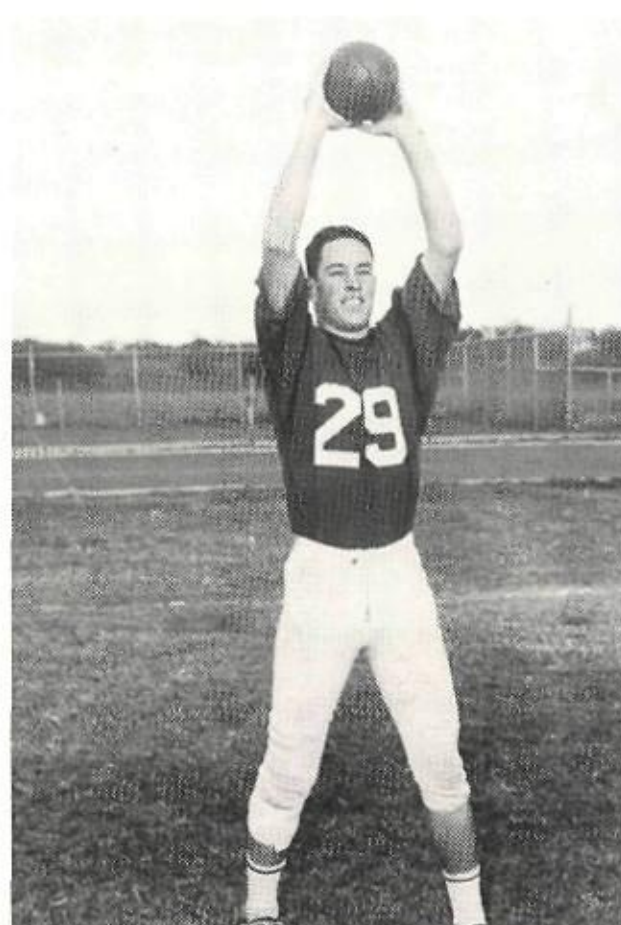

CHICK WHISTLER

Chick, a junior seemingly too small for a fullback, could be counted on time and time again for some explosive running and hard hitting to keep the Tiger drive going. He was another who was tough to stop when vital yardage was at stake.

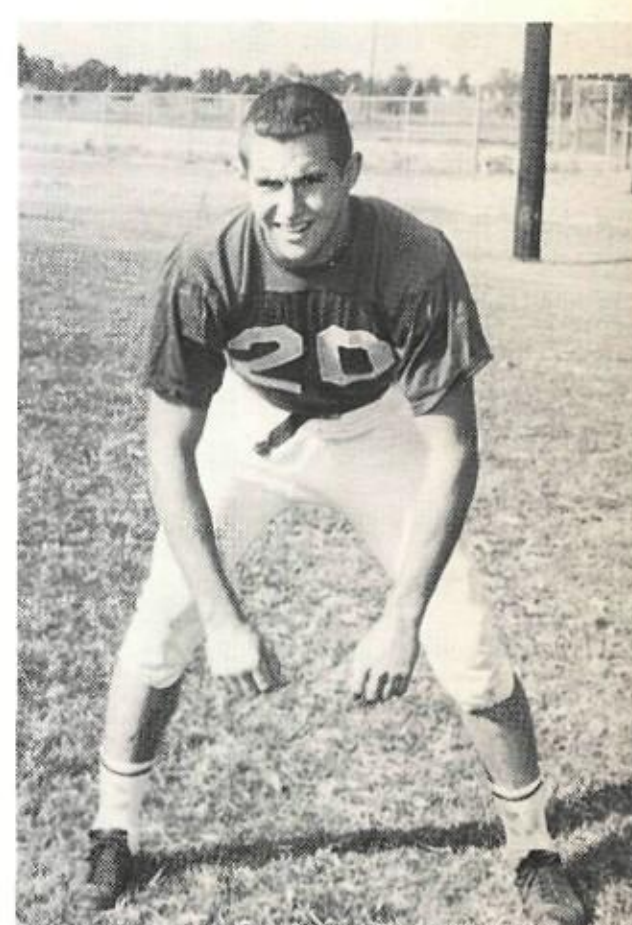

DAN WILCOX

Seeing a lot of action when the district games rolled around, Dan, a junior end, tried hard to help the Tiger cause. He was always ready to go into battle and tear into the opposition.

JIM WOOD

A senior guard, Jim led the Tiger line corps this fall with an exciting brand of football. Quick and versatile, Jim made it rough on opponents much heavier than he by his keen knack of the game. Jim took all-district honors and is a three-year letterman.

TIGERS TIE FOR DISTRICT

Using their height and pin-point shooting ability to full advantage, the Tigers swept to a tie for the 8-AAA crown with Waxahachie for the second year in a row.

With all five starters returning from last season's quint, the Bengals under Coach Jerry Matthews also won a third place trophy in the Rockdale Tournament to start the season. Throughout the year, the team relied on good rebounding both offensively and defensively, spirited hustle and effort, and a strong offense built around hot shooting from the outside as well as in close.

As far as records go, the cagers had one of their best seasons. The Tigers reeled off 14 victories against only 3 setbacks, including an outstanding conference mark of 9-1.

A high-scoring outfit, the team scored 929 points over the route for a 55-point average. Good defense, which was another effective characteristic of the Tigers success, held opponents to 703 points for only an average of 41 points per contest.

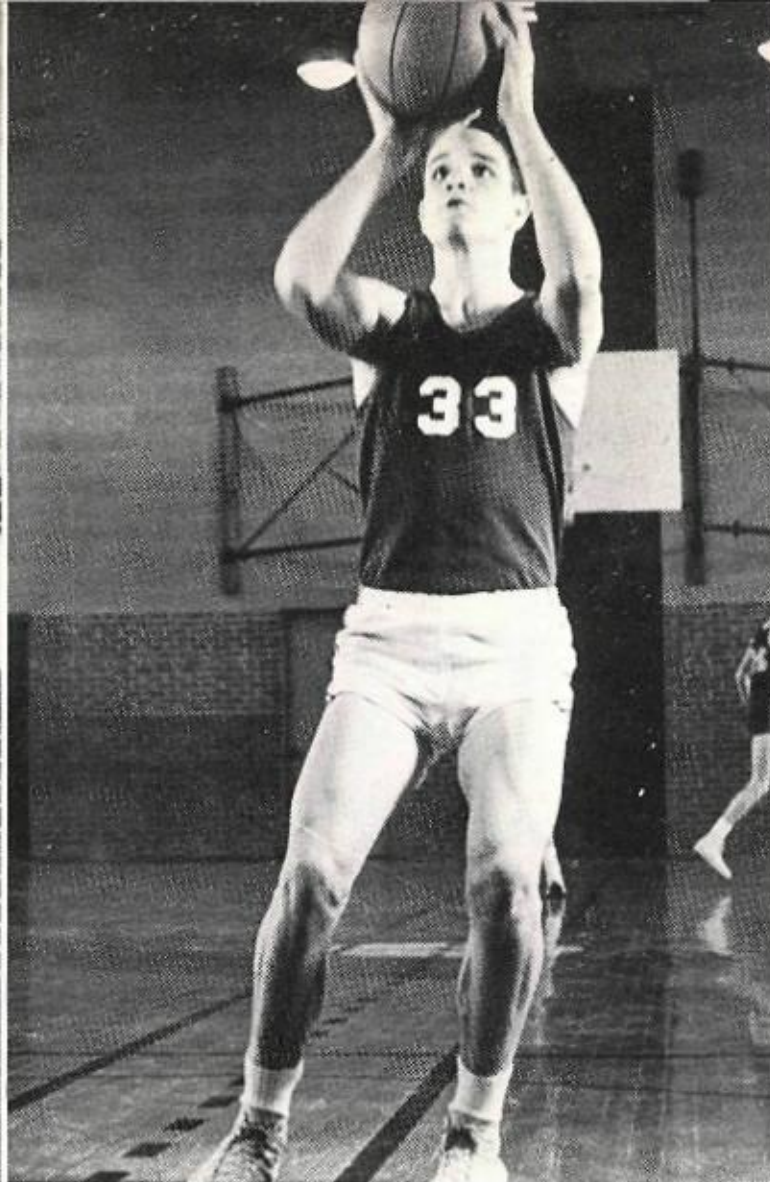

Coach Jerry Matthews

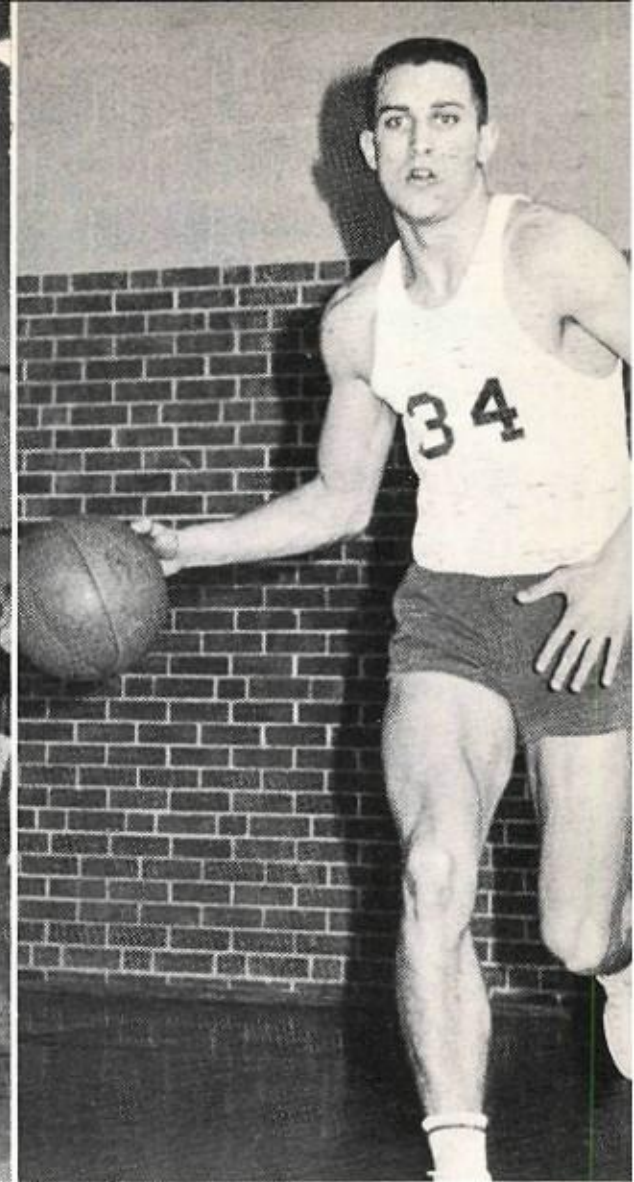

DANNY BOSLEY

A two-year letterman senior, Danny's shooting was deadly from the corner as he outplayed his opponent time after time. Making the all-district team as a forward, he proved himself valuable by being a top rebounder and defender.

KEN DORAN

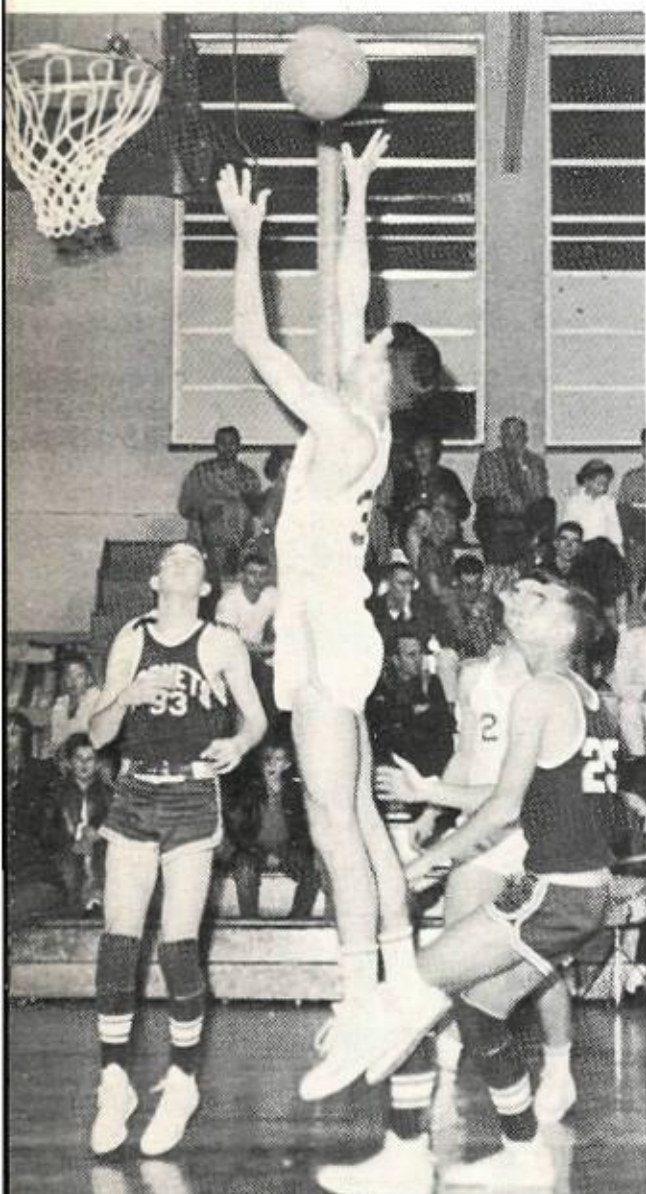

Another junior, Ken made the A Squad this year by way of high spirits and desire. Playing a forward, Ken was an appreciated aid to this year's team.

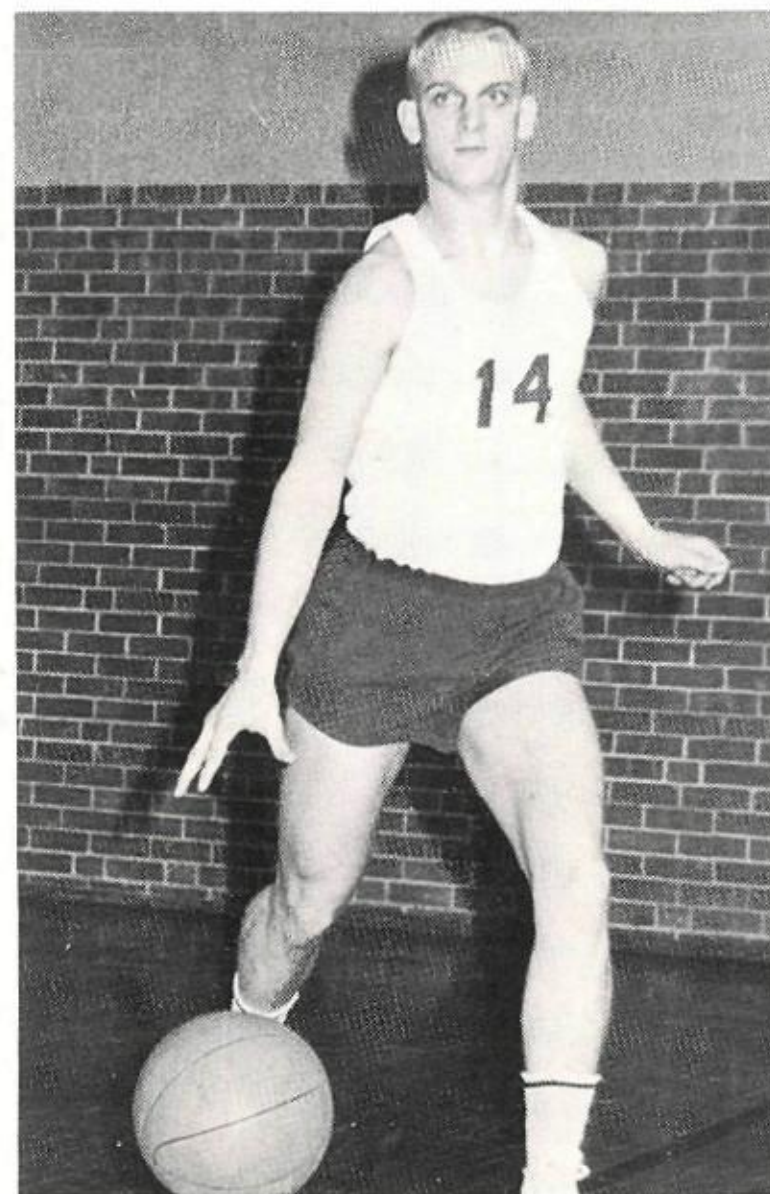

JIM HAGLE

Jim, another three-year letterman, was an all-district selection again this year due to his aggressive, ball-hawking play. His shooting precision was an offensive threat, and his height and strength got the team out of several jams.

BASKETBALL

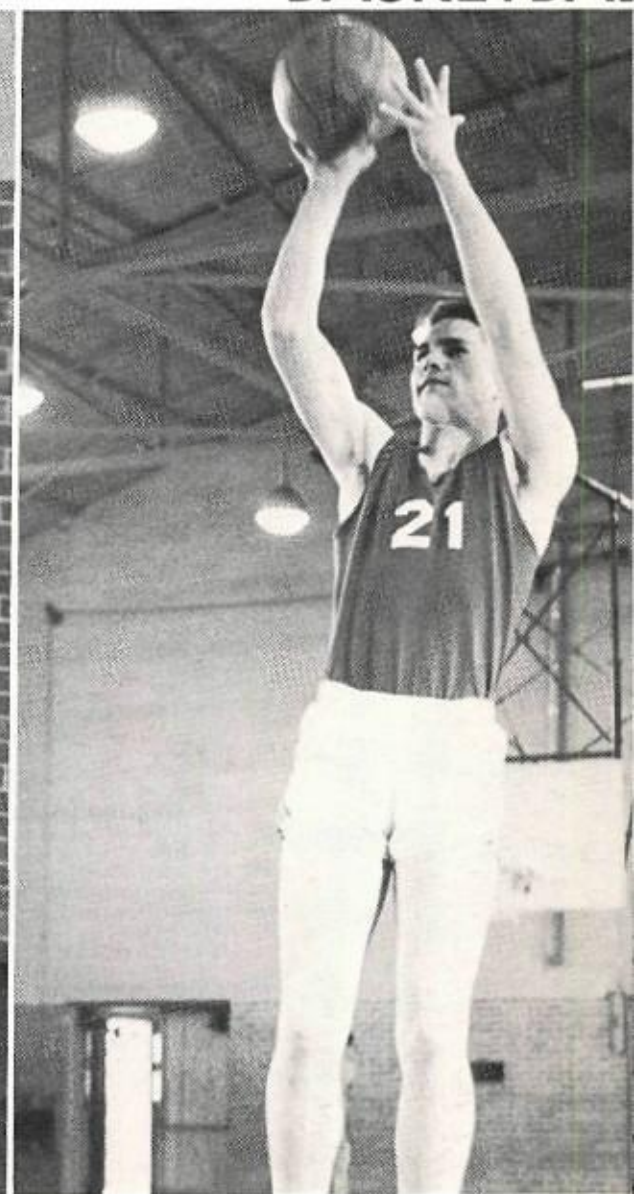

Loys Moorman, senior post man of the Tigers, gets off a jump shot between two Athens' defenders in a District 8-AAA game this past season. The Bengals decimated the Hornets 64-45 for a key win.

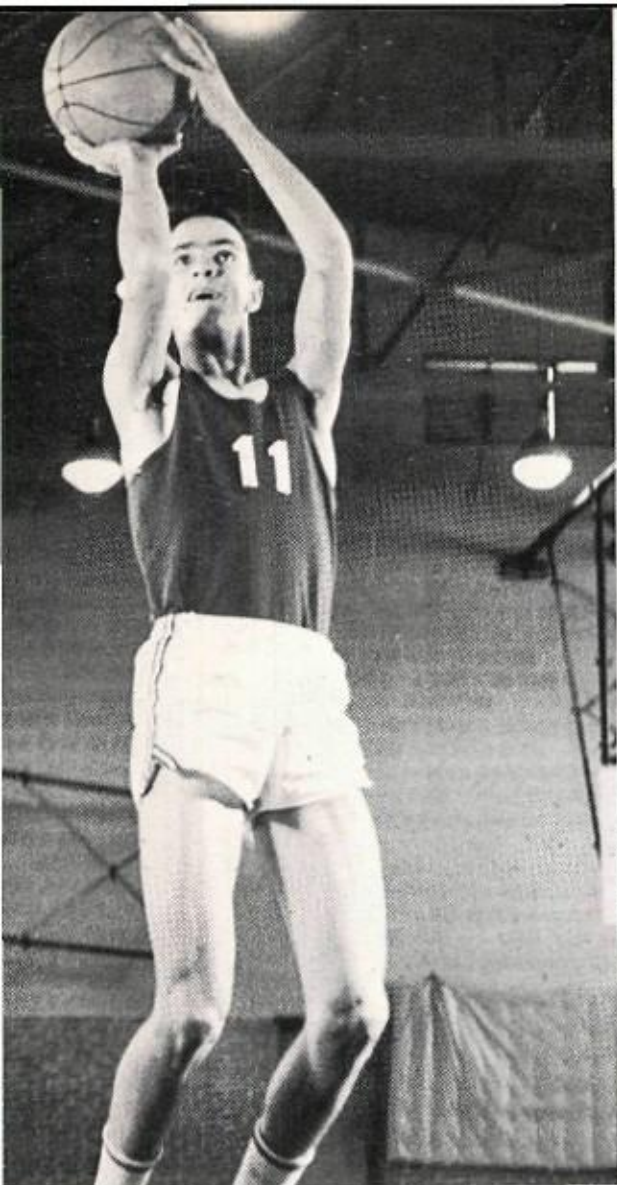

RANKIN KOCH

A junior, Rankin quarterbacked the Tiger cagers this season as ball-handler. His quickness and smooth dribbling confused enemy teams, and he came through when he was needed most.

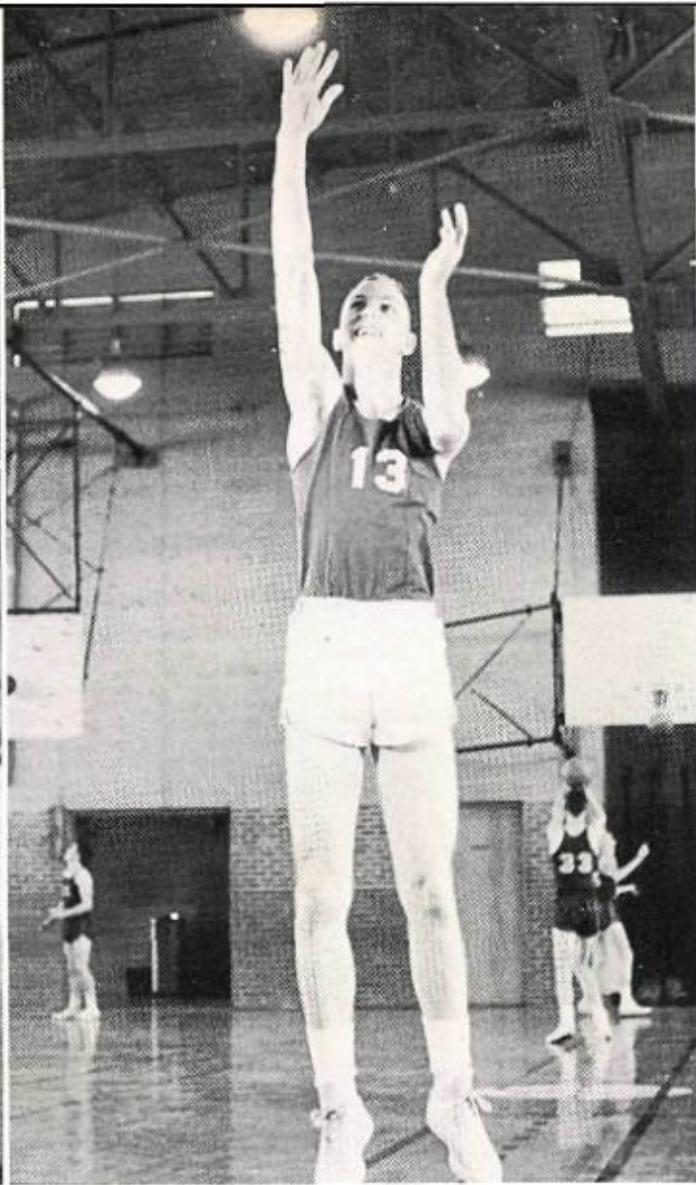

DONNIE DENBOW

Donnie, a senior, was another big rebounder for Bengal basketballers this year. Donnie's hustle and speed made him tough on defense and his spirited, over-all play made him necessary to the team.

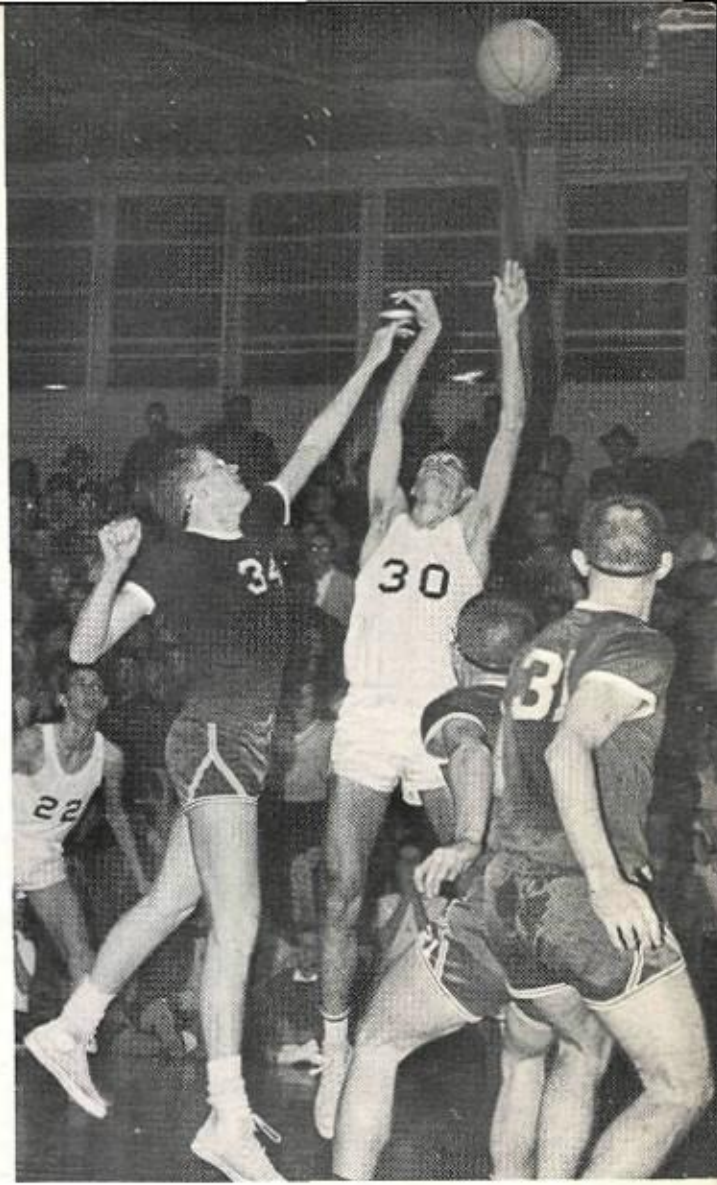

BILL MIDDLETON

A junior cager, Bill came up from the B team to give the Tigers a capable ball-handler. Cool and calm under fire, Bill's team played hard to carry the Bengals.

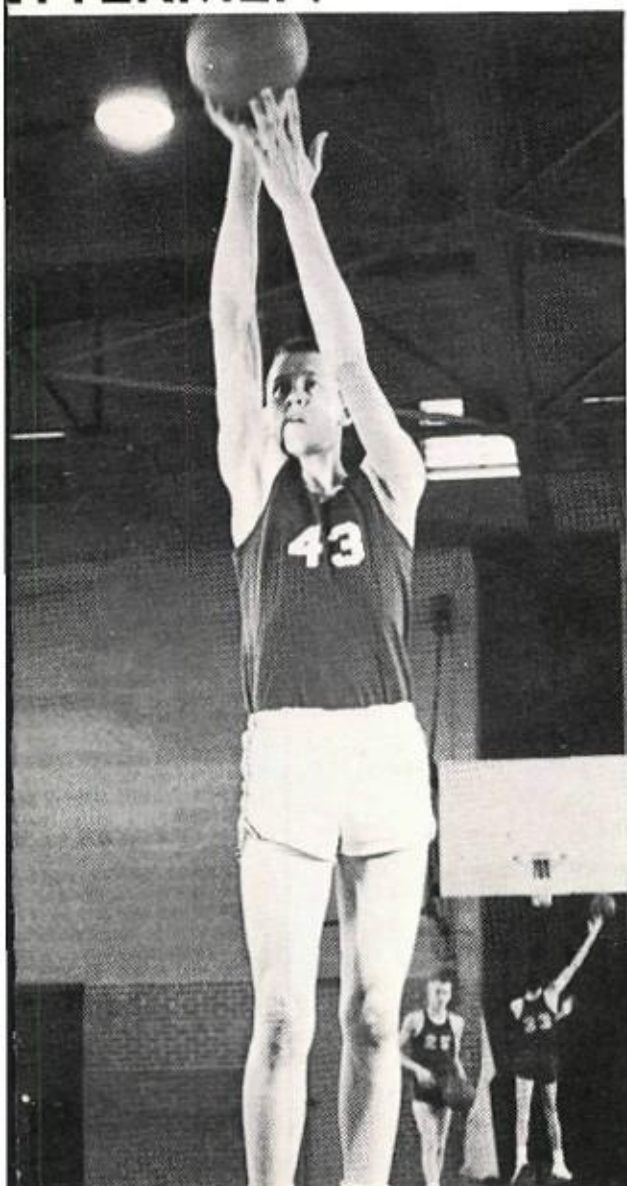

BILL HENSON

Although considered short for a center, Bill offset this by beating his opposition through a variety of moves. Another junior, Bill was always ready to give a big effort for the Tigers.

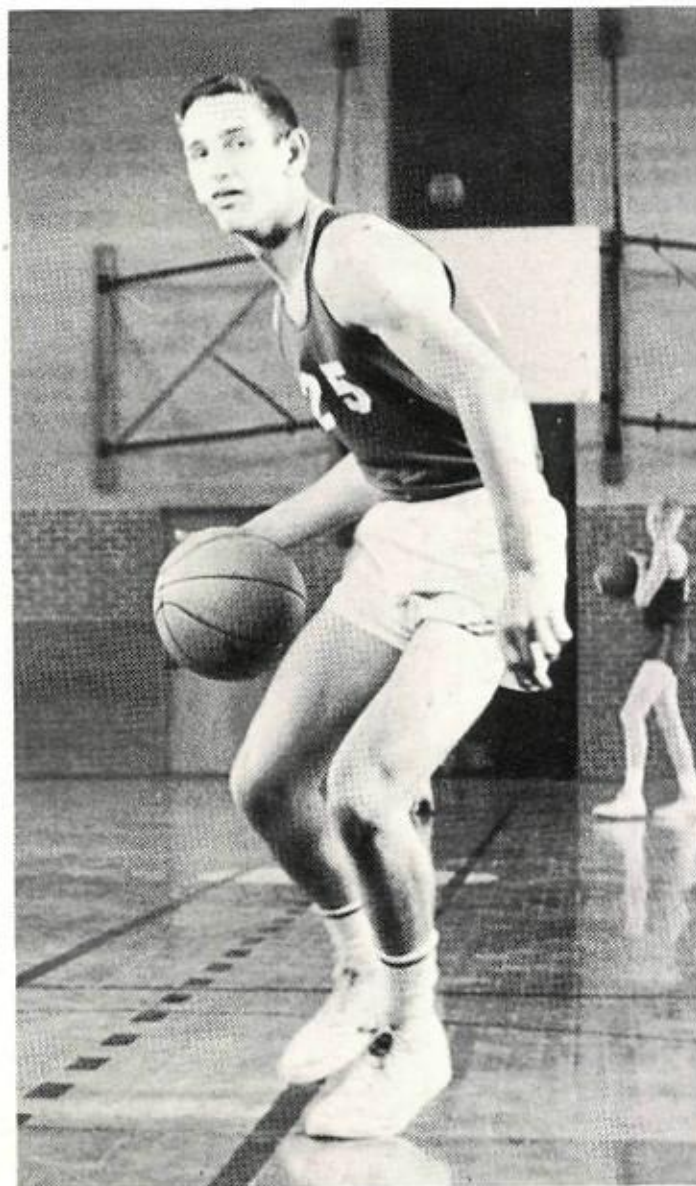

In the Bengals 66-54 win over Waxahachie in a crucial district game, center Loys Moorman fires a jump shot over the outstretched hand of the Indian's Chuck Tidwell (34) as Danny Bosley (22) of the Tigers and Mike Turner (31) of Waxahachie watch the action.

LETTERMEN

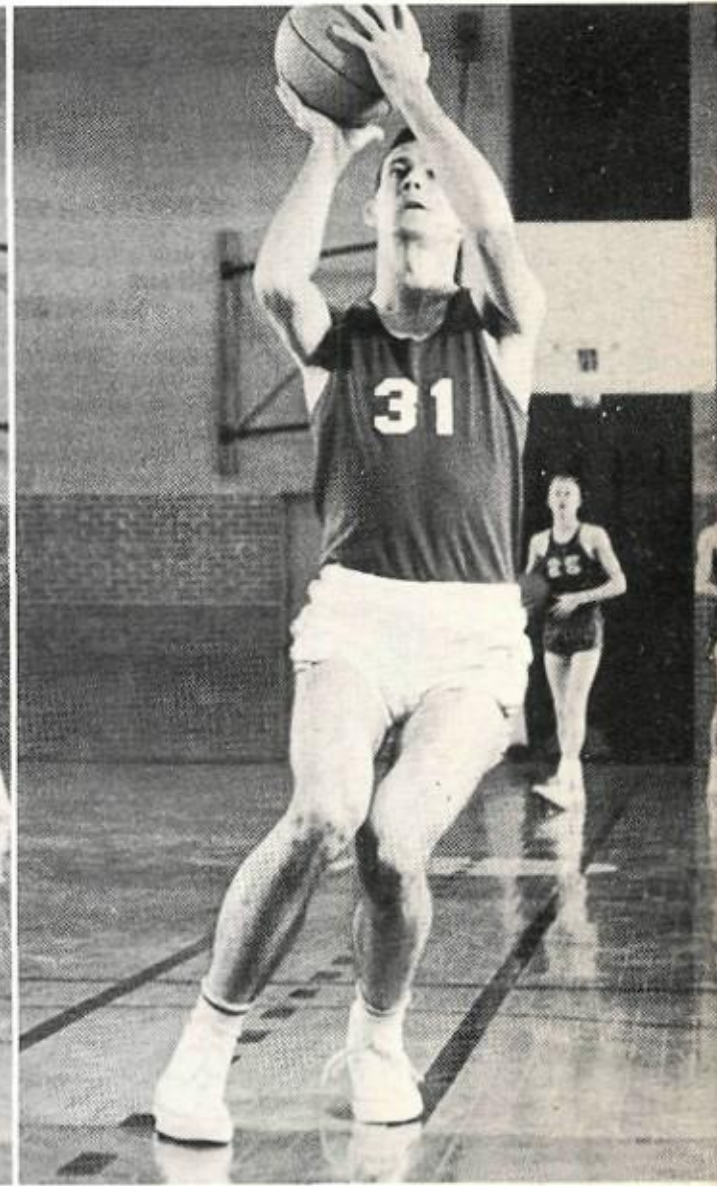

ROGER WARNER

Roger, a tall junior, developed his jump shot during the season and put it to use in the action as his height enabled him to add the Tiger score on several occasions.

CHICK WHISTLER

Speedy and elusive, Chick went full steam at every opportunity to shake enemy defenders for a basket. A junior, he provided the team with another hustling player.

LOYS MOORMAN

Being highpoint man in seven of the Tiger games, Loys was very accurate with a soft one-hand shot from his post position. A senior three-year letterman, Loys was one of the team's top three scorers.

BASEBALL-1963

The '63 baseball season was spotlighted by close, hard-fought games, especially in district play as the Tigers were again led by Coach Jerry Moore.

For the full season, the record reads 8 wins and 12 losses, and a district total of 3 victories and 7 defeats. There were several very close games, and a bounce of the ball either way could have given the Bengals more wins. For an indication of the closeness of some of the games, Cleburne nosed out the Tigers twice by 1 to 0 scores, and Ennis squeezed two 3-1 decisions from the scrapping Tigers.

Scoring 25 runs in 8-AAA games to opponents 26, the Tigers gave the heads-up effort and pushed hard throughout the season.

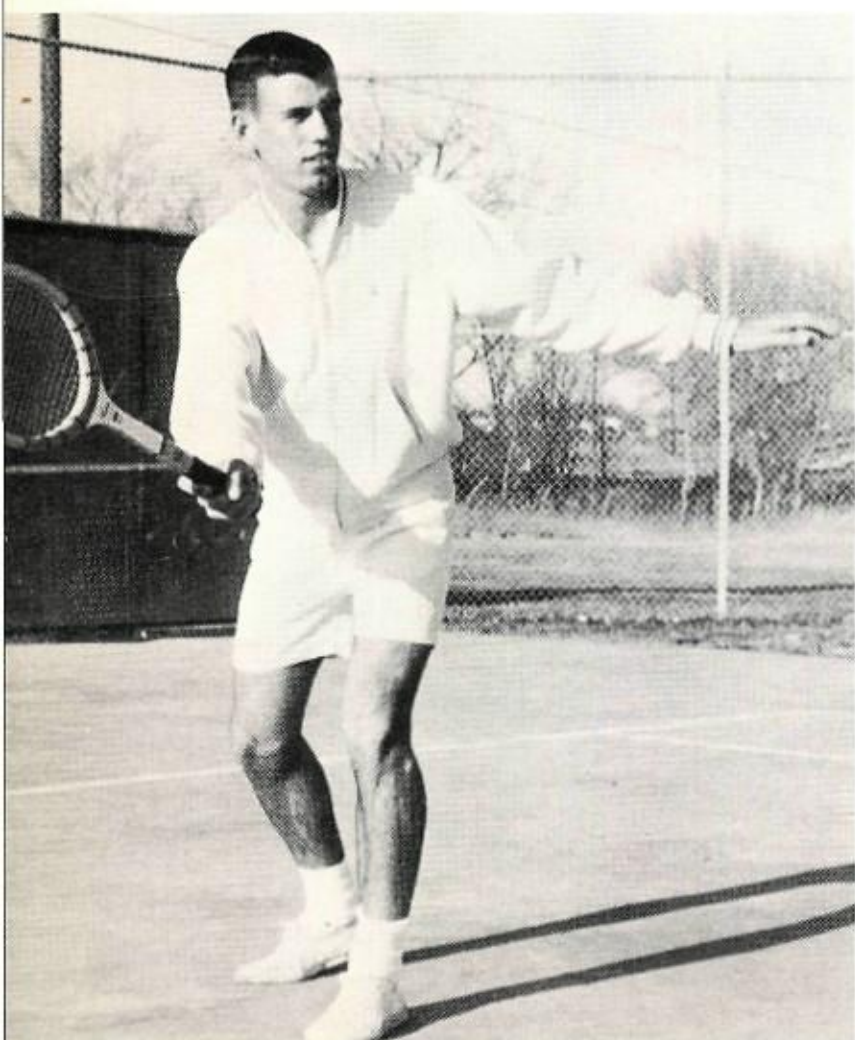

Coach William R. Hay, Linda Hopwood, Larry McCarver, Diana Dickson, Randy Garrett, Meredith Mitchell, Skipper Curry.

TENNIS - 1963

The 1963 tennis season produced Corsicana High School's first state champion in quite a while. Diana Dickson swept through district and regional competition and then won the AAA Girls' Singles Championship with two straight set victories to highlight the season.

In the district meet held here, Diana won the girls singles, Linda Hopwood and Meredith Mitchell combined for the doubles victory, and Larry McCarver captured the boys' singles title. The team, under Coach William R. Hay, then went to the regional tournament where they were again successful. The three girls won their events, qualifying for state. In the state tournament, Diana scored a 6-0, 6-0 decision over Joy Vasek of Lamar, then played a good, sharp game in the finals to whip Lillian Billings of Mercedes 6-3, 6-3. The doubles team of Hopwood and Mitchell made the semi-finals before bowing to a tough San Benito duo, 6-3, 6-1.

For Diana, the championship was extra special, she having come back to win this year after reaching the semifinals at the same time last year.

Reaching out to return a shot, Skipper Curry levels out his racket as he gets set to meet the ball.

GOLF - 1963

Tiger linksters had a good year in 1963 under the leadership of team captain Ken Smith and sponsor, Mr. Nelson Ross.

After showing well in practice meets, the Bengals shot to the district title by upsetting a heavily-favored Cleburne team on the Terrell course. The foursome which cupped the crown with a 72-hole score of 309 was Ken Smith, George Dozier, Bill Clarkson, and Dana Arnold. Each one of the quartet shot in the seventies as they edged the Jacket golfers by two strokes. The number two Tiger team, made up of Tommy Taylor, Allyn Lang, Bill Nekuza, and Dan Slate, shot 334 for sixth place.

At the regional tournament in Fort Worth, the Bengals carded a third place with a 617, eight strokes back of winner Cleburne and one marker behind runner-up Vernon. Individual results of Corsicana for the 144-hole tourney were: Ken Smith, 149; Dana Arnold, 154; Bill Clarkson, 156; and George Dozier, 158.

With teammate Allyn Lang looking on, Tiger linkster Dan Slate lines up a shot on the local Country Club Golf Course.

Row Two: Roy Washam, Mike Russell, Happy Settle, Bill Henson, Don Ivie, David Hamilton, Ronny Rhoads, Chick Whistler.

The highlight of the 1963 Tiger track season was the performance of the mile relay team, composed of Robert Pimentel, Don Ivie, Wade Blackford, and Dicky Fluker. This quartet set four meet records and recorded a season best time of 3:27.2.

For the entire season, Bengal cindermen placed third at the Dogwood Relays, Martin Relays, and Tiger Relays; second in the district meet with 162 $\frac{1}{2}$ points, and sixth in regional competition.

District records set by the tracksters were: James Henkel in the shot put with a heave of 48' 9 $\frac{3}{4}$ "; Jim Hagle in the discus on a 136' 2 $\frac{3}{4}$ " throw; Happy Settle and Roger Goldesberry in the pole vault with jumps of 11' even; and a 3:31.4 time by the mile relay.

In the regional meet, Wade Blackford won the 880 yard dash with a time of 2:00.8 and Happy Settle placed second in the pole vault at 11' 6".

Advancing to state, Settle secured a third place by vaulting 12' 9" and Blackford ran sixth in the 880, recording 2:00.3.

Dear James

It's been a blast going with you these few years and hope it will be many more. Going to school with you every morning has been fun, too. A blast in other words. Stay as sweet as you are and lots of luck.

Love ya always
Linda Coker
